

Kathy Mahne

President & CEO

Kathy Mahne is President and CEO of Arbitration Forums, Inc. (AF), the nation's largest arbitration services provider. Kathy joined AF in January 2017 after 32 years with Allstate Insurance, where she was senior vice president claims.

Kathy is a seasoned people leader dedicated to creating a world class organizational culture at AF with superior employee engagement that translates into excellent service and product experiences for AF's members. Kathy has extensive expertise driving transformational change and strategic innovation and is committed to developing the potential in all employees and members.

Additionally, Kathy and AF remain dedicated to helping those in need and actively support the following organizations: American Red Cross, Hope Children's Home, Humane Society of Tampa Bay, Metropolitan Ministries, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Tampa Bay, and The Spring of Tampa Bay.

Prior to joining AF, Kathy served on the AF board for five years, most recently as board chair.

She obtained her bachelor's degree in business and economics from Lafayette College in Easton, Pennsylvania.